REMARKS:

A. NAVAL SHIPPING

One cruiser, Sverdlov class, at outfitting wharf.
One cruiser, reported Kirov class, has all superstructure removed.
One unidentified ship, approx. 300'x 45', appears to be undergoing repairs.

B. MERCHANT SHIPPING

Three tankers, 465'x 65', at outfitting wharf. Cranes are servicing each ship.
Two probable tankers, 465'x 65', in building ways. Both hulls appear to be practically completed.

C. NEW BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

1. A covered building way is now located on the south side of FONTANKA Canal opposite the shipyard. It is 255' wide at the water's edge, is 340' long and approx. 65' high. This building is of steel frame construction, has a flat roof with 4 monitors, and appears identical to the covered building way at the nearby Baltic Shipyard. Adjoining the west side of the covered building way is a shop-type building, 300'x 70'.
2. Another shop-type building, 270'x 185', of steel frame construction with a pitched roof and monitor, is located just east of the new covered building
